

THE SILVER CONVENTION.

The APPEAL desires to call the attention of the silver men of Nevada to the fact that the Silver Convention at Reno has but one duty to perform, and that is to name three silver men to represent Nevada in the electoral college; men who will be ready to vote for the nominee of the Omaha Convention, and in case of a dead lock, to be ready to make such terms with either party as may best advance the interests of Nevada and her silver industry.

When this Convention has made those nominations and adopted its platform, its labors are ended.

The instant it starts off endorsing Cassidy, or Newlands, or Bartine or Powning for Congress, or Bowler for Supreme Judge, it oversteps its duty.

The silver party is not inaugurated in this State for the purpose of creating dissensions among Nevada silver men.

The party is formed to voice the feelings of the citizens of Nevada against the great national parties who have persistently ignored us. We desire to show the people of the East that we regard the welfare of our State above mere party success, and that we will never cease battling against the injustice of '73, as long as there is strength left us to fight.

There has been talk in the newspapers that the silver party will make a Congressional nomination. Suppose it should nominate Mr. Cassidy. Immediately the Republicans of the State would leave the silver party, and it could not live with this wing cut off.

Suppose it nominates Mr. Bartine, Mr. Newlands or Mr. Powning. At once the Democrats will draw out of it.

If the silver party in this State desires to live and become a thing of permanence in Nevada, it will, during the Presidential year, confine itself to National politics and let State politics take care of themselves. Its very life depends on this course.

The silver men have printed over 25,000 copies of Stewart's reply to Sherman to distribute in localities where the people need light on the silver question. Sherman has been posing as a financial seer and revelator for years, when he is merely a mummy wrapped in the ceremonies of Wall street. Every time Stewart kicks the hollow cadaver it rises up and gnashes its teeth at the West.

It looks now as though the two men most pronounced against a second term, Benjamin Harrison and Grover Cleveland, would be pitted against each other in a wild scramble for that which they solemnly declared they never would accept.

Every editorial or squib in favor of Harrison in Nevada is furnishing aid and comfort to its enemies in Wall street and London.

The Miners' Election law in Michigan has been upheld by the Supreme Court. It will give the Democrats ten electoral votes.

Antidote to Rattlesnake Bite.

Dr. J. H. Garnier, the naturalist of Lucknow, Ontario, Canada, has given the following valuable advice to a correspondent in this city. He writes—"In regard to snake poison. The plan is simple. Have on hand 1—Some iodide of potash in a tightly corked bottle. 2—Some sweet spirits of nitre. 3—A bottle of whiskey as a valuable stimulant and help, but it is not needed as a positive requisite. If a finger, a foot, or leg be bitten first of all apply a ligature between the bite and the body and make an incision (a cut like the letter X) over each fang mark as soon as possible to make them bleed, or let the person bitten suck the bite freely or get it sucked. Next give the sufferer a small teaspoonful (one drachm) of iodide of potash dissolved in a teacup of water and allow him to retain it on the stomach for ten or fifteen minutes. Then give a tablespoonful of sweet spirits of nitre in some water or tea and leave the poor fellow alone. Above all things do not get nervous nor into a fuss. It does no good. If you have whiskey you can give as much as a pint at intervals. A second dose of iodide etc. may be given from fifteen to thirty minutes after the first. It will act equally well on a dog as on man.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle.

Benton's Liniment for sale at all drug stores.
